comparatively easy for some time to legislate on the silver question.

At the Clearing-House it was said this morning that if the action of the banks did not relieve the strain of the present situation in the money market, it was probable that the July payments of interest would do a great deal to allay public apprehension, and restore confidence by giving circulation to large amounts of money.

A number of corporations have already anticipated these payments, but the greater part of the funds to be paid out will be released after next Monday, and it is believed that money will then be comparatively easy for some time to Stock Market Very Dull with a Clothing Sale! FLOWER ON THE MONEY ISSUE Thing Most Important. ALBANY, June 30 .- Gov. Flower re-thought of the mancial situation. He replied:

"It looks to me much clearer. The suspension of the free coinage of eliver by India has made the repeal of the Sherman law absolutely certain, no matter whether Congress is called together now or next December. Business men may count on that to a certainty in my judgment.

"There is no occasion for anxiety for an extraordinary session. What is wanted just new more than a session of Congress is brave action on the part of the banks. They have been prudent and conservative during the last three moaths, and ilimid action on their part moaths, and timid action on their part now would do more to unsettle business than the Government purchases of silver can possibly do between now and next December.

"The prices of all securities and commodities are much below a gold basis to-day, and loans on them ought to be perfectly rafe. The banks ought to have more faith in the United States Government. Every bank in the country is ausbanding its strength in anticipation of runs." That is natural, but beyond a certain point, it breeds trouble, for this very excess of conservatism creates runs on banks."
